

INTERVIEW PREPARATION

First of all congratulations on getting through to the interview stage. We know going for an interview isn't everyone's thing, so we have created this to help those of you that are a little nervous and unsure of what to expect. It also offers some pointers of things we think you ought to know about before you join our team.

Know the Basics

Learn some basic bits about the hotel and its history

Do your homework - look up the Coaching Inn Group and see what we're about

Look at the direct competitors to the hotel you have applied for

Search for any press releases or news reports about the hotel

Prepare

Try to think ahead and be ready with answers to some of the questions you could get asked

For example:
Tell me about yourself?

Why are you applying for the position?

Why do you want to work here?

Why should we hire you?

Be ready to ask questions at your interview, you can always bring a list of questions with you

Arrive on time and be well presented, first impressions do count

Shine

Try to feel relaxed, comfortable and confident

A bit of stress is good for you!

Be honest and let your personality shine through

Always smile, we are in the hospitality industry so show that you can be hospitable - life is too short not to smile
